

UOTA 2022 Annual Conference Program: Looking Back → Moving Forward

Time	South Auditorium* 	Classroom 4	Classroom 5	Classroom 6	Classroom 7
8:00 – 8:30	Breakfast & Registration (South Auditorium)
8:30 – 9:30	Welcome & Keynote Speaker (South Auditorium). Alyson Stover – AOTA President. Looking Back → Moving Forward
9:40-10:40	Naomia Rivera, AOTA's commitment to DEI in Occupational Therapy	Barbara Williams, Shaun Conway, NBCOT® Certification Exam: Information You Need to Know	Philip Lamoreaux, Steve Wallenfels, High Intensity Training, does it have a place in Occupational Therapy?	Michael Takatsuno, Nick Sidwell RooTFx Of Movement and Occupational Therapy
10:50 – 11:50	Beth Cardell Assessment and Treatment of Decreased Self-Awareness	Barbara Williams, Shaun Conway, Your National OTR or COTA Credential: What It Means for You	Ronald Honey What we have learned from challenges with Humanitarian efforts due to the pandemic.	Brian L. Thompson Pain Neuroscience Education: An innovative approach to chronic pain treatment	Anita Williams The joy of sensory emotionally balanced people through meditation & guided imagery.
12:00 – 12:45	Lunch & Business Meeting
12:45-1:15	SLCC OTA 2nd Year Students - Poster Presentations - Adaptive Devices (Classroom 8)
1:20 – 2:20 SIS Groups	Nick Sidwell Pediatrics SIS	Sydnee Hancock Entrepreneurs SIS	Bonnie Eckman Mental Health SIS	Mary Ann Gunnuscio Rehabilitation SIS	Andrea Thompson Geriatrics SIS
2:30 – 3:30	Travis Chamberlain Transitioning your School-based Caseload to a Workload Using the 3:1 Service Model	Meena Iyer Journey of a 'dementia friendly' community project during the Covid-19 pandemic	Royce Porter The Specialty of Being a Generalist	Bonnie Larsen Body Image and Sexuality	Ryan Rivers  The psychology of and ways to mitigate the functional impacts of burnout.
3:40 – 4:40	Chantel Wilson, Megan Hogsdon The View Ahead for Partial-Hand Prosthetic Devices + Multidisciplinary Q & A with Manufacturer, Prosthetist, and Therapists	Kiera Petersen, Alejandra Gonzalez, Samantha Tse, Alissa Atisme Paving the Way to Diversity in Occupational Therapy	Scan here to view the  Full Conference Program	Rhonda Roth, Sarah Grey Comprehensive Behavioral Intervention for Tics (CBIT): An Introduction	Ryan Rivers  An introduction to Acceptance and Commitment Therapy (ACT)
4:40 - 5:00	Certificates & Wrap Up (South Auditorium)				